

Request to Withhold Your Voter Registration Record from Disclosure

Utah Code § 20A-2-104

What does this request do?

State law allows certain non-government individuals and organizations to obtain some of your voter registration information—even if your voter registration information is classified as a private record. This form allows certain individuals to request that their voter registration record is classified as withheld. Personally identifiable information will not be released. The information that must be provided is the residential/mailling address, party affiliation and age range of the voter.

Please provide your personal information:

1

Your full name Your address or date of birth (this will be used to find your voter registration record)

Your phone number or email address (to contact you regarding this form if necessary)

Utah law only allows certain categories of individuals to withhold their voter registration records from disclosure.

Please indicate the category that applies to you:

2

- I am an individual who is a victim of domestic or dating violence, or I am likely to be a victim of domestic violence or dating violence.
- I reside with an individual who is a victim of domestic or dating violence, or I reside with an individual who is likely to be a victim of domestic violence or dating violence.
- I am an individual who is protected by a protective order or a protection order.
- I am a law enforcement officer.
- I am a member of the armed forces. (Armed forces include the United States Army, Navy, Air Force, Marine Corps, Coast Guard, National Guard, or a reserve or auxiliary of these entities.)
- I am a public figure who has an increased safety risk due to being considered for, holding, or having held a position of prominence in a public or private capacity or due to my celebrity status. (Note: elected officials do not qualify for this category.)
- I reside with an individual who is protected by a protective order or a protection order, a law enforcement officer, a member of the armed forces, or a public figure who has an increased safety risk due to being considered for, holding, or having held a position of prominence or their celebrity status.

Please provide a statement below that explains why you meet the category you indicated above. This section is not required if you are a victim of domestic violence or dating violence, you are likely to be a victim of domestic or dating violence, you reside with an individual who is a victim of domestic or dating violence, or you reside with an individual who is likely to be a victim of domestic violence or dating violence. Attach additional sheets if necessary. Your election official may require you to provide additional documentation to verify that you meet the category that you indicated above.
