

OCEANS OF POSSIBILITIES

By Katie McBride

This morning I sailed on the big, blue ocean
To see what I could see.
I took with me my spyglass
And a saltwater, mangrove tree.

This afternoon I found a giant sea snail
And traveled on it's shell.
We played with all the ocean animals
Inside the Hake Hotel.

This evening I cast off with my pirate crew
Of Billy, and Suzy, and Ted.
We plundered and pillaged and fought with our swords
Until it was time for bed.

To find oceans of possibilities
I know just where to look.
I'll just walk on down to my library
And check myself out a book!
