

Important Changes Coming to All Patron Accounts

Beginning on January 2, 2018, the Davis County Library will no longer mail overdue notices to patrons. All overdue notification will be done by email. Please see a library staff member to update your account information, including, a current email address.

Receive Your Overdue and Hold Notices by Email

It is quick and easy, just register your email today!

See library staff for more details.

