Volunteer Opportunities Available Throughout Davis County To Serve Needs Of Senior Citizens

(Farmington, Utah) – Davis County Health Department Senior Services is seeking volunteers from the community to serve the needs of senior citizens throughout Davis County.

Opportunities for volunteers include friendly visiting and telephone reassurance programs, transportation for errands and medical appointments, and professional repair services that will donate time to do repairs for lower income seniors. Also needed are translating services or bi-lingual volunteering, office work, delivery for Meals on Wheels program, help at any of the three county senior activity centers, and one-time volunteer projects such as yard clean ups. Most volunteer opportunities are ongoing.

For more information or questions, contact Jessica Hardcastle, Volunteer Coordinator for Davis County Health Department Senior Services at (801) 451-3335 or e-mail her at jhardcastle@daviscountyutah.gov.
